PolishRoots covers all areas that were historically part of the Polish Commonwealth, from the 16th through the 18th centuries, throughout the years of partitions by Prussia, Russia, and Austria, through its rebirth in 1918, subsequent domination during World War II and post-War occupation, to its present freedom and struggle for independence through the latter 20th Century.

We also promote Polonia, areas of Polish presence throughout the world regardless of ethnicity, religion, or political views. We cover everything Polish whether you have ancestry there for 500+ years, or you shop at a Polish deli down the street. We place no limitations!

Navigating our Site

We have completely revamped the PolishRoots website and have added many state of the art content management features.

Your main entry point to the site will be the home page, which is where you currently are. This gives the option to navigate 1) via the tool bar at the top of every page or 2) via the site features links on the left side of every screen.

There is a PolishRoots site search function that is in the upper right hand corner of every page which allows you to look by keyword for items of interest on this site.
